The annual list of 12 Jewelry Trends for 2015 aims to serve as a guideline for store purchases in the new year, highlighting pieces and materials trending now, based on the clothing, color, red carpet, and real-life influences at work in the market. Metal-intense statement cuffs are the sixth trend on the list. Here are seven new options for retailers to consider stocking.

Metal-intense statement cuffs. Nothing makes a statement like a big ol' cuff bracelet. And with metals' declining prices, these are well within reach of consumers this year. They pair well with the minimalist-inspired fashions still in the market, and the metal medium allows designers to get artful and creative with carved effects, textures, finishes, and volume.
